Job Description

St. Aloysius' College is a successful North Islington R.C. Comprehensive school. We take pride in our friendly and inclusive school community with its commitment to supporting pupils and staff in achieving their full potential.

We are looking to appoint a Head of Year (HoY) who will be responsible for the continuous improvement of conduct, behaviour for learning, pastoral support, and attendance for their year group. The Head of Year will be expected to maintain contact with their Year Group Teams for the benefit of both students and colleagues, keeping aspirations high for all. Heads of Year should promote our core values and demonstrate integrity, determination and respect at all times.

You duties will include:

Leading Behaviour and Attendance

- Have an acute understanding of the Year group's strengths and areas for development in relation to Behaviour for Learning and attendance.
- Ensure that all appropriate safeguarding measures are in place for the year group and are regularly reviewed to ensure all students are safe.
- Improve behaviour for learning identified through learning walks and evaluations by ensuring appropriate follow up support and challenge.

Teaching and Learning

- Lead on how to achieve behaviour for learning and support staff and students to understand how the two are inextricably linked.
- Monitor the Year group's achievement and progress academically and play a full role in contributing positively to their continuous drive for improvement.

St. Aloysius' College is committed to Safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people, and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.

Apply: An application form is available via the school's website <http://www.sta.islington.sch.uk/>. Please email your completed application to Debbie McDonagh mcdonagh.d@sta.islington.sch.uk
