Job Description

St. Aloysius' College is an established and highly successful school (11-19) in North Islington. We take pride in our friendly and inclusive school community with its commitment to supporting pupils and staff in achieving their full potential.

St Aloysius College are looking to appoint an enthusiastic and committed person to teach History. The successful candidate will need to be a specialist in this area. The History department has excellent GCSE and A-level results, and is an integral part of the school curriculum.

Our NQT programme is excellent and we welcome applications from new teachers.

Your role will include:

- To support the Head of Department.
- To support the provision of an appropriately broad, balanced, relevant and differentiated curriculum for students studying in the curriculum area, in accordance with the aims of the school and the curricular policies determined by the Governing Body and Headteacher of the school.
- To develop and enhance his/her teaching practice.
- To monitor and support the overall progress and development of students as a teacher within the curriculum area and as a Form Tutor

How to apply: An application form is available via the school's website <http://www.sta.islington.sch.uk/>. Please email your completed application to Debbie McDonagh
