Job Description

St. Aloysius' College is an established and highly successful school (11-19) in North Islington. We take pride in our friendly and inclusive school community with its commitment to supporting pupils and staff in achieving their full potential.

We are looking to appoint a qualified and enthusiastic, Head of SEN Department who will play a key role in determining strategies for supporting all students with SEND.

The successful candidate will be required to manage the Learning Support programme, this will include a team of Teaching Assistants, liaising with staff, parents and outside agents as and when required to offer guidance and support.

You will be responsible for the day to day operation of the school's SEND policy and co-ordination of special needs activity; aiming to increase staff awareness of SEND issues and to raise SEN pupil achievement.

In our Ofsted inspection in March 2012 we received an outstanding judgement in all four key areas and an overall outstanding assessment.

St. Aloysius' College is committed to Safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people, and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.

This appointment is subject to an enhanced DBS check and positive references.

How to apply: An application form is available via the school's website <http://www.sta.islington.sch.uk/>. Please email your completed application to Debbie McDonagh or drop off the application to the school office.
