Job Description

St. Aloysius' College is an established and highly successful school (11-19) in North Islington. We take pride in our friendly and inclusive school community with its commitment to supporting pupils and staff in achieving their full potential.

We are looking to appoint a Teacher of English to join our dedicated and successful English department. The successful candidate will join a team committed to delivering a stimulating curriculum and maximising the potential of all learners through outstanding learning and teaching across the full age and ability range. Candidates should be passionate about teaching, with excellent subject knowledge and be committed to ensuring success for all.

In return for your passion for excellence, determination to achieve outstanding results and willingness to contribute to the ethos of the school, we offer you the opportunity to practise in a collaborative environment where expectations are high and career development is encouraged. Applications from NQTs are welcome.

In our Ofsted inspection in March 2012 we received an outstanding judgement in all four key areas and an overall outstanding assessment.

St. Aloysius' College is committed to Safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people, and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.

This appointment is subject to an enhanced DBS check and positive references.

How to apply: An application form is available via the school's website <http://www.sta.islington.sch.uk/>. Please email your completed application to Debbie McDonagh or drop off the application to the school office.
