

World Book Day 2016
Thursday 3rd March

We will be celebrating World Book Day with a whole host of events at St. Aloysius' College.

Dressing up as our favourite book characters

Years 7 to 10 are invited to dress up as their favourite book character. We have made a suggestion of Wally from 'Where's Wally' but should your son/ward wish to dress up as a different character then this is also encouraged. We ask that a donation of £1 is made; this will be donated to local hospital's children's wards to provide books for children who are seriously ill.

A prize will be given to the best book character costume!

Book Sale

We will be holding a book sale during break and lunchtime in the main school hall for students to purchase books. These will be priced between 10p and £2.

If you have any unwanted books we would be very grateful for your donations. Please hand in your donations to Ms. Cull or Mrs. Cox.

The money raised from this book sale will be reinvested into the school's library to purchase new books for the students.

Wonka Stall

In true Charlie and the Chocolate factory style we will be selling cakes and treats at our very own Willy Wonka stall at break and lunch times. Students will be able to purchase items from the stall.

Relaxing reading in the library

We will be providing students with a relaxing environment for them to read during the week. Please encourage students to bring in a book they would like to read during this time.

Drop Everything And Read

We have successfully been running Drop Everything And Read sessions at the school; students and staff read a book of their choice for 30 minutes during a designated time. This encourages a passion, enjoyment and love of reading in the school. On World Book Day there will be an allotted time when students and staff Drop Everything And Read. We encourage you to discuss and support your son/ward's reading both at school and at home.

Competitions

There will a series of competitions throughout the day including writing a mini saga and solving the book themed riddles hidden around the school. Prizes are going to be awarded for all competitions!
